

Chicago Books to Women in Prison is a volunteer cooperative that strives to improve the quality of life for women in prison by providing them with books at no cost on the topics that interest and inspire them

Books Behind Bars

An event in support of Chicago Books to Women in Prison

Hosted by Uncharted Books

Sunday, October 19, 6 p.m.

2620 N. Milwaukee (Kedzie & Milwaukee) in Logan Square

Light refreshments served

- Hear guest speaker Reynolds Wintersmith—whose sentence was recently commuted by Presidential pardon after serving 20 years—on his experience and the importance of books for him in prison
- Browse at Uncharted and buy books requested by the women we serve
- Learn from our volunteers all the ways you can help provide books to people in prisons

chicagobwp.org | chicagobwp@gmail.com | Find us on Facebook | @ChicagoBWP